From the Crown

Greetings unto our gracious populace,

The drums of War have faded although our hearts still remember the deeds we did and the friends we met. The Outlands has successfully stayed the forces to the West for the time being and have gone to the aid of Our Good Cousins of Calontir to thwart off their foe from the South and East. Our battle troops and archers should stand the ready and keep their skills sharp. We hear already that preparations are being made to battle Us again within the year in the West, and the drums from Calontir call out that War will be upon them again in short order. Practice often, fill your stores, prepare finery and camps -- the Crown of the Outlands will have need of you!

Gifts and presents of fine cloths, gems and jewelry, food stuffs and perfumed soaps, children's toys and fighting armor have been graciously given by Our subjects. We thank you wholeheartedly. We have been blessed with many talented artisans whose wares have been presented as tokens of Our friendship to the Crowns of foreign lands. We know from their thanks that these gifts were well received and pleased them. The coffers of the Crown are always in need of replenishing and your gifts of largess are always needed and welcomed.

There are many opportunities for Our subjects to learn new skills. Events such as Heralds and Scribes, the Queen's College and all the local Guild meetings and symposia have proven themselves by the talented people they have spurred on to greater aspirations. The many new scribes that we have are wonderful and the beauty of the scrolls they produce is shown at every event. The talents of our jewelers, clothiers, embroiderers, chandlers, wood wrights and others in the material arts, the bards, harpers, singers, drummers, dancers and others in the entertaining arts all make the Outlands a wonder to live in. We welcome Eirene into the Order of the Laurel, as well as Sir Mavrikii into the Chivalry and Master Gwilim into the Order of the Pelican.

We welcome also the addition of Our Heirs to the Royal House. The victor of the Crown Lists was Duke Irel, who bore the favor of his lovely lady, Mistress Rosalind. Please join Us all as We celebrate Their Investiture at a Coronation spectacular hosted by Our Barony of Dragonsspine next month.

From the Kingdom Rapier Marshal

Greetings from the Kingdom Rapier Marshal!

Hopefully, everyone by now has recovered from Estrella, and is ready to begin tourney season in earnest. I'd like to thank everyone who helped at Estrella, and encourage anyone with comments or suggestions for next year to contact me.

This month in al-Barran, Sworded Affaire will include collegium-type classes as well as the usual fun and fighting. I encourage all who are able to attend. Several excellent instructors from out of Kingdom will be on-hand to get the new Sidesword program kicked-off in earnest. It will also be a good place to iron out the kinks in the classes you want to teach at KWAR in October!

Finally, I have received expressions of interest in the office of drop-dead deputy from Don Oengus, Don Tristan, and Lord Thomas. If anyone else is interested, please let me know. I would like to make my decision by the end of May.

In Service,

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Unto the populace of the Outlands does Master Adam Stedefast, Kingdom Seneschal, send greetings,

First and foremost, I would like to spotlight a member of the seneschallate team, Lady Rhiannon ferch Fychen, Kingdom Minister of Children for organizing the Outlands boffer tourney at Estrella War, in addition to the uncounted hours donated toward children's activities, in preparation and during the war. Lady Rhiannon was an integral part of those activities, providing for the children and making the Outlands shine. Thank you, Rhiannon!

Lord Artorius Greyhawk, one of the Fontaine dans Sable Toys for Tots coordinators, will be teaching a class on Toys for Tots Strategies at this year's StagsCon to be held in Aarquelle, the second weekend in July. Anyone with additional suggestions for StagsCon is encouraged to send them to me ASAP.

By the time this missive reaches you, I will have held this office for one year. It has definitely been an experience of learning and growing. From the Kingdom Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlanders,

April is a slow month for fighting events but keep up the practice, for the summer's tournaments will soon be upon us.

The marshalate staff has begun the process of renovating the Marshal's Handbook and the authorization process. We hope to have things completed by the end of the month for review and it will then be made available. It may be drastically different (much shorter) as things need to be cleaned up and there will be changes with Society rules, so keep your eyes and ears open to find out when and where to get a copy. We are also putting together a new standard for authorizations, for both new and current fighters. Our goal is that the authorization process becomes standard across the Kingdom. This transition will begin in May.

Combat archery at the war proved significant in battles. The Outlands fielded a fine CA group and I would like to see that group grow further. I would like to put together a Combat Archery Marshal position for establishing more concrete rules and regulations for equipment and building a firmer communication base for CA aspects and its growth within the Kingdom. If you are interested in this position, please contact me and we can discuss it further.

With that, I bid you all enjoy these warm months of spring and, as always, be safe.

Lavan

From the Kingdom Chamberlain

Good greetings from Countess Cainnleach. I am proud to be able to continue to serve this Kingdom in a new role -- Chamberlain. As you may know, the Chamberlain's office is responsible for the maintenance and procurement of Kingdom Regalia. I believe this is an important role to ensure our Kingdom continues to take its rightful place among the other Kingdoms with beautiful regalia, banners, and pavilions.

The office has initiated a number of projects. I want you, the Kingdom populace, to be informed and I'm soliciting volunteers for some of the projects. In the past month, Mistress Beatricia and her household have graciously created new King's Guard tabards and Queen's Guard tabards. A new Kingdom War Banner was also made by THL Gwendolyn. My many thanks to these ladies and their hard efforts to prepare the Kingdom for Estrella War.

The new projects for creation of regalia are:
Kingdom thrones
Crowns
Kingdom Officer Banners
Award Medallions
Lady-in-Waiting Sashes

If you'd like to assist in the creation of these items, please contact me at your convenience. If there are other items of regalia that you feel would help glorify the Kingdom, please let me know.

I look forward to working with all of you and seeing the Kingdom enriched in expanded glory.

In Service to the Crown and the Kingdom,

Countess Cainnleach

From the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences

Greetings All - This month brings us the Queen's Collegium. Elsewhere in this issue you will find the class schedule and description. It was current as of March 1 when it was submitted, but will most likely have changed by the time you read this, as April 1 was the deadline for registering to teach a class and the schedule may have been shuffled! Please see the website, www.geocities.com/malvoisine/Outlands_Collegium.html for the most up to date schedule.

We have incredible diversity in the classes offered and I hope you will all take advantage of the skills and knowledge being offered by our Kingdom's fine artisans.

My deadline for an Arts & Sciences issue of the OH has come and gone and alas, I did not receive enough submissions. I will press on and keep soliciting for them - maybe I'll have enough to publish it by Grand Outlandish?? Again, I am looking for how-to's, poetry, prose, artwork, patterns, reviews - anything A&S. Please contact me today with any questions.

For those who might wish to speak to me in person, I shall be attending the Fool's Tourney in White Mountain (April 5), Queen's Collegium, (April 12/13), Sworded Affaire (April 26), Coronation (May 10), and Grand Outlandish – this schedule is of course always subject to acts of God, the Air Force and Kindergarten.... As always, please contact me if I may be of service!

Toujours a vos ordres,

Margaret

From the Minister of Children

Greetings to the populace of the Mighty Outlands!

After recovering from the battle with the weather at Estrella (and drying out all the pavilions!), I have taken keyboard in hand and will relate to you the activities that centered on the youth at War.

Friday the children's center opened an hour later than planned due to the rain of the previous evening. The children started out the day with Lady Isabelle le Carpenter from the Kingdom of Atenveldt, who taught the children how to cross stitch the profile of a unicorn. There were several children who had a great time with this activity. We also had plastic cross stitch material for book marks for the other interested youth. This activity was followed up with mask construction. There were some beautiful and creative masks that graced the children's faces. Then, Lady Rhiannon from the Kingdom of Atenveldt told some wonderful stories to the children. Lady Rhiannon had the children enthralled with her tales of medieval derring-do and chivalry. Our next activity was to create chocolate kiss roses. This activity was a great hit with the children and the adults alike. The activity day was capped off by Lord Roland of the Outlands, who enthralled and entertained the children with string games. The children enjoyed showing what they had learned to their friends and family.

I also want to express a special thanks to all who helped with the First Annual Outlands/Adenveldt boffer tournament; so many good gentles volunteered their time to the children at war! I am deeply grateful to you for your gifts of time, skill, and teaching! If I have missed your name, I deeply apologize.

Lady Danica, Mistress Richenza, Lady Erin Rose, Lady Sasha, THL Gwydion, another marshal whose name escapes me (sorry) and Lady Danica's son (whose name also escapes me - again, my apologies. I also wish to express my thanks to Lady Jeanne, Lord Gunnar, and Master Michael of the Kingdom of Atenveldt. I also want to express my gratitude to the scribes of the Outlands who created some of the most beautiful scrolls for the list winners. I want you to know that I personally saw parents showing their child's scrolls to any and everyone who wanted to see them! They were so proud and impressed that our Kingdom has scribes willing to take the time to create beautifully illuminated and calligraphed scrolls for the children's list. A round of Hazzahs to Mistress Bennet, THL Margherita, and THL Leona for their scribal efforts. You ladies Rock!!

This was a wonderful experience for all the children. I think that they had a great time.
The winners of the first annual Outlands/Atenveldt list were:

In the 6 and under age category:
Best Death- Samira
Most Chivalrous- Michael Joseph
Heraldic Presentation- Daniel de Lacy
Overall Winner James Gordon

For the 7-11 age category
Best Death- Tallie le Mange
Most Chivalrous-Ulf
Heraldic Presentation- Vincent
Overall Winner- Thyferen Gwydionsson

For the 12-15 age category
Best Death - Odo
Most Chilivirous-Nicodemus
Heraldic Presentation- Jonathon de Lacy
Overall winner -Jasmine

And the overall winner of the Estrella WarYouth War Point was Thyferen Gwydionsson!

We are already planning on Estrella XX youth activities - if you would like to be a part of the excitement, please drop me an email at rhiannon1@zianet.com - next year we want to involve the older youth in marshaling and other activities so all gentle children out there who will be between 14-17 years old by war next year, plan on getting involved! More on this later this year.

On a final note, The Minister of Children in Atenveldt and I are making plans on hosting an inter-Kingdom Youth Collegium over this year's 4th of July weekend. I realize that this conflicts with Glory in Unser Hafen, but the date was already selected by Atenveldt before we were invited to participate. We are still finalizing the site, however we hope to get a state campground on th AZ-NM border that is equidistant to both Kingdoms. This event promises to be a fun family event for all ages – I will write more of this in next month's OH.

Yours In Service to The Youth - The Future of the SCA!

Lady Rhiannon ferch Fychen

From the Kingdom MOL

Tournament season is here! Fighting, fencing, archery, equestrian; lots of tourneys to enter. Before you leave the comfort of your home to conquer friends and foes near and far, remember to check for your membership card and fighter authorization card. Not only will you save yourself $3 at the troll booth, but you will be allowed to fight to your heart's content at your next event.

If you find that those expiration dates are near, renew that membership (usually takes a couple of months for Corporate to return the cards) and find a local authorizing marshal to renew your authorizations BEFORE they expire.

There are currently OPEN POSITIONS in Dragonsspine, Unser Hafen, and Bofharrach for Minister of the Lists. If you are interested in having the best seat in the house for a tourney and providing a valuable service for your Barony or local group, please contact your local seneschal or myself. You can find tourney reporting forms, authorization reports and various other helpful links at the Minister of the Lists web pages located by entering the Kingdom Officers web page: http://www.outlands.org/officers.html and clicking on the Minister of the Lists link.

From the Kingdom Waterbearer

Greetings to the good people of the Outlands from the new Kingdom Waterbearer:

I would like to send a big thank you to Lady Alia for all her hard work and dedication to her office. She and her staff did a wonderful job taking care of our mighty warriors at Estrella. The strength of the Outlands stems from the strength of its people, and the waterbearers put forth great effort and sacrifice to safeguard that strength by keeping everyone hydrated. You are all greatly appreciated.

I would like to introduce my regional deputies – Mistress Rowan of Caer Galen in the North, and Lady Constance Warwick of Citadel for the Southern region. Both of these fair ladies are dynamic and intelligent leaders. They will be able to provide excellent organization and support for the waterbearers of their regions.

My first goal is to increase the visibility of the waterbearers on the field by providing them with new tabards to wear whenever they are on duty. At war, the waterbearers were given beautiful new war tabards. Thanks to everyone who worked so hard on them. However, they are so impressive that I would like to save them specifically for war. Therefore I am providing tabards for everyday use. The first 30 should be completed by the time this article goes to print. Speaking of which, I would like to thank the incredible team of seamstresses who have been working tirelessly to create these tabards: Mistress Celine Jeanne' de Hermain, THL Delia Rose of Thorncastle, THL Diana of Lanberris, Lady Dalia de'Auria, and Lady Tessa Elizabeth de Straitharn.

We are making two types of tabards. The azure tabards will be worn by those invaluable volunteers who give of their strength for the good of the kingdom. The argent tabards are for the knowledgeable mentors and leaders among the waterbearers: those who are holding the office for a local group, anyone who has ever been a Kingdom Waterbearer, and those who show exceptional dedication to waterbearing. Anyone who is interested in obtaining an argent tabard please contact me.

In Service,

Lady Gwenydd Sastra

Positions Available

The warrant for the Editor and Art Director of Tournaments Illuminated expires in January 2004, and the current Editor and Art Director have expressed their desire to step down at that point. In order to ensure a smooth period of transition, applications for the positions of Editor and Art Director of Tournaments Illuminated are now being accepted.

Candidates for the Editor position should have professional editorial experience, the ability to meet deadlines and organize a staff, familiarity with SCA publications, and a vision for the future for Tournaments Illuminated. Experience with academic citation styles and the ability to choose articles based on interest to Tournaments Illuminated's audience, readability, and (where appropriate) historical accuracy are also desirable. Communications skills are also important to the position.

Candidates for the Art Director position should have expertise with modern magazine production, the ability to meet deadlines, and the ability to work with printers. Since the Art Director is responsible for Tournaments Illuminated's layout, he or she should also have access to a computer system configured for desktop publishing.

E-mail access is absolutely vital to the position. Experience has shown that high speed internet access is also very useful, although not required.

Past experience has shown that the Editor and the Art Director work more easily together when they are in the same general locale. This arrangement is preferable, although not required, and candidate teams are encouraged to apply together. Single applications will also be considered. The Editor/Art Director can be the same person if the candidate has all of the necessary skills. Both positions receive a small stipend.

Applications should include a resume and a sample portfolio. Send applications via email to:

Rashid ibn Jazeeri writes: Dear Chronicler, what is a feastocrat?

Dear ibn: Actually, that's a pure SCA neologism, a word we use to mean "head cook" or "chef de cuisine." It is one of the many terms we use to try to sound medieval where the real medieval word is annoyingly mundane - see the many words we use for "children" for another example. The word, were it word, would mean "Head of a feastocracy" - which would, in turn, be a government wherein decisions were made by feasts.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A June event MUST run in the June OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
